

A NEW TITLE AND A NEW BRAND FOR THE LIBRARY OF GUIDO MONDANI

Limited edition of 1'500 numerated examples.

Format 25.5 cm x 31.5 cm

English - Italian

Mondani Editore adds to its prestigious collection an important new title entirely dedicated to one of the most collected brands in the world: PANERAI.

A limited edition of 1500 numbered copies all over the world, including 2 volumes with more than 780 pages, in an elegant slipcase, which will satisfy the curiosity of all collectors.

The work of Mario Paci and Dino Zei is guaranteed to respect and preserve the prestige and richness of information that is expected of its products.

The two volumes “Panerai Watches from 1936 to 1997” and “Panerai in Florence - 150 years of history” offer not only a complete vision of all the models that have characterized the story of PANERAI, but also many curiosities about the company, information concerning the patents and the products, and many useful details underlining why a PANERAI watch is a good investment.

