

Guido Mondani and Osvaldo Patrizzi wrote the Rolex Bible

Guido Mondani, editor and collector known all over the world, publishes the most complete reference work ever done on Modern and Vintage Rolex Wristwatches. Thanks to the union with the author Osvaldo Patrizzi, known as one of the 20 most famous men in the world in the field of horology, a true Rolex encyclopedia is born. This books allow the collector to have a complete knowledge of this brand, knowing every model which marked the history of Rolex.

2 large volumes in an elegant slipcase, 848 pages, a complete overview of all the models ever appeared on the international market.

Among the topics, the famous Ovetto, the Daytona Chronograph, Paul Newman model, the Prince, the sport models like the GMT-Master, Explorer I, Explorer II, Submariner, Sea-Dweller, Milgauss and the great Daytona.

Moreover, enclosed are the only true Chronological Table of Production, the useful tool to be able to find the year of production of your Rolex, the Useful Adresses for the Collectors and the Estimates of Modern and Vintage Rolex Wristwatches, with more than 4000 valuations.

The aim of this work is to make collectors able to know everything about Rolex and to transform their passion into investment!
